21ST ANNUAL LUNCHEON

The “Round Up” of Alvernia Alumnae in 2013 will always be remembered for the abundance of rainfall which made traveling around the Chicago area very difficult. Our committees were constantly checking road closings and certainly wondered if this luncheon could even take place. But our alums came through and the 450 who made it to Rosemont had a great time enjoying the cowboy hats and our special guest “John Wayne”. We are very grateful to the Rosemont Catering Staff for all their assistance and perseverance even though elevators were not working and the basement was flooded!

Sister Kate updated everyone on the dollar amount (before this year’s $20,000.00 donation) our wonderful Alvernia Alumnae have contributed with the following:

Dear Women of Alvernia and all here present,

“There is an old Christian tradition that God sends each person into this world
.....with a given amount of time
....with a special message to deliver
....a special song to sing for others
..a special act of love to bestow.

No one else can speak your message, sing your song, or offer your act of love.”

The person that came to mind when I read this was our dear Sister Vitalis. I recalled the words of St. John Chrysotom:

“Those whom we have loved and have lost are no longer where they were...they are wherever we are.”

Believe me, she is here with you today, delighting in your theme of this year’s luncheon.

Did you know that she loved horses and that there was a horse named after her? Yes, it was Vitalis!

He ran many a good race and, of course, sent her some of the profits.

But it is YOU in whom she continues to delight most of all! From the bottom of our hearts, we, your Franciscan Sisters, want you to know that when the final history of this world is written, YOUR message, YOUR song, YOUR love through your gifting in the care of our retired Sisters in the amount of $2,663,000 and the total of all gifts shared for their continued care, will be recorded gratefully and forever.

Our song, our special act of love is holding you and your loved ones in prayer each day.

Sister Sharon Kubes, Class of 1958, led us in prayer (see page five) before our meal. As you can see by viewing the class pictures a number of classes celebrated their anniversary reunions at the luncheon; many of them as a conclusion to a weekend of activities.

Many of our alums brought address labels to put on their raffle tickets and that worked out very well so we encourage you to do that again next year. We were very grateful to all who answered our request for additional volunteers—thank YOU very much! Hopefully we can count on you again.

Our new “Alvernia” items were a big hit. We still have a few mugs, crosses and purse holders. Look for some additional items at the 22nd Annual Luncheon on April 6, 2014.

Three of our alums were honored with a bouquet of flowers for their years of faithful support and Alvernia spirit—wonderful role models to the Alumnae Association: L-R Stella Schultz Knorst, Class Rep of 1934, Elaine Dixon Matuszak, Class Rep of 1939 and Mary Leabeater McGough, also of the Class of 1939.

KEEP THE MAIL COMING...

Charlotte Fritz Suizzi '36, Prescott, AZ. Someone wondered how old the oldest Alumna is! I am 95 however, I note Alice Fischer Krohn is still active. God Bless her—I am still fairly active. My daughter keeps reminding me that when I had cancer I said I'd live to a 100! Now I think differently! Still—no complaints. Thanks to all you gals who keep us together! You are appreciated!

Pat Riordan Dvorak '53, Mesa AZ. In the Fall 2012 issue of Alvernia Alive you printed a letter my sister Maureen sent you about my mother's 100th birthday, Bernice Anderson Riordan, Class of 1931. My sister, Mary Ellen Riordan Zalusky graduated in '55.

I can't tell you how many grandkids, great grandkids and great-greats there are between Mary Ellen, Maureen & brother Mike; I can, however, tell you mine: which is the biggest part of the family. I have 8 children, 21 grandchildren, 29 great grandchildren and 2 great-greats. I'm still plugging away at my accounting practice.

Mom has a lot of visitors because most of us live in Arizona. Mary Ellen's family are the only ones left in IL. Thanks for your great work!

Joan Christoph Sutherland '48. Thanks again for the Alvernia Alive. I could not put it down...and none of you look your age, must be an Alvernia Alum thing. Last issue had an error, we live in FL 6 months and in NC 6 months. Keep up the good work!

Joan Peters Alimonti '51, Pioneer CA For the last 19 years I have been taking small groups of friends and friends of friends to Europe. We always go in September and usually do three countries for anywhere from 22 days to 28 days. We drive station wagons, four to a car and stay in small family hotels and B&B's. I call my travels "Adventures in Travels" and my motto is "on the ground with the locals." (www.adventuresintravels.com) I have taken people to Austria, Southern Germany and Bavaria, Switzerland, Italy, France, Spain and Croatia. Included were three different canal trips in France piloting our own boats. "Tune in" to my website and see my philosophy of travel...it's the only way to go.

This year it's eight people, two cars, 28 days for Austria, Bavaria and Italy. I have cousins in Bavaria, which we see every year and my husband, Tony, has cousins in Italy, which we see often.

Arlene Plash Muench '52, Chicago, IL On May 30th my husband Richard and I became great grandparents for the first time to Haylee Ella Muench. That day happened to be our 57th wedding anniversary!

Cynthia Nalepa Edwards '60, Sun Lakes, AZ, Thank you for all you and your committee do.

Peggy Anderson Smykowski '61, Lombard, IL, Thank you for all you do for the Alumnae Association and the wonderful luncheons. We really do appreciate your efforts.

Marianne Aiken '63, Chicago, IL (Pat & Barb) Thank you from our committee and the ladies who were added at the 11th hour to the luncheon.. You both went above and beyond the call of duty—not only adding them to the luncheon, but adding a table so they were able to sit with the rest of our class. That made it so much nicer for everyone, especially since we were celebrating a Milestone Anniversary! Words cannot express our heartfelt thanks for all you do and for making our 50th Reunion Weekend even better than what it was. Thank you.

Sharon Renkosiak Smogor '69, Buffalo Grove, IL is a teacher at Carmel High School and her mother, a Carmel alum, will be the recipient of the BVM/Carmelite Award for her exceptional service to the Carmel Catholic High School Community at their September Alumni Reunion Weekend.

SNIPPETS and more.....

Richard G. Rouse, M.D. San Antonio, TX, “(Dear Ms Grimes), Who and from which class is the oldest known living alumna? My mother, Marianne Ashenbrenner Rouse, was 99 years old in May 2013 and she is from the class of 1932.

She gets around with a wheelchair or walker in extended care at Incarnate Word Retirement Community in San Antonio, TX. Three of her sisters are still alive, Rita Aschenbrenner Ryan, '42, Agnes Barbara Ashenbrenner Wunsch, and Angela Ashenbrenner Ambrose. Marianne has 5 children, 16 grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. She tries to enjoy each day and wishes each alumna the very best.”

Elaine Dixon Matuszak '39, Chicago, IL, (Dear Barbara) God Bless America! Next year's luncheon will mark 75 years for the Class of '39. I will be happy to do what I can to coordinate the celebration. I turned 91 in July and am on a walker but my head is still on pretty straight! Thank you for all your years of dedication to Alvernia. Phoebe, my great granddaughter, (pictured to the right) loved the hat I won this year. The plant is doing famously. The spikes are about 10” tall and quite impressive.

Esther Alani Behnke '53, Glenview, IL, “I am currently president of Illinois Quilters' Inc. and a past treasurer of the group. I also write/edit a 3 page monthly newsletter for The Glenview gardeners. I'd enjoy hearing from alumnae in either group. eeabehnke@gmail.com

Gloria Blue Green '67, Chicago, IL “As I remember Joan Stroner—she was a vibrant, unconventional free spirit which would be so mainstream today. She believed in “following one's bliss,” and Alvernia High School was the perfect backdrop for this idea. I had drama all 4 years, and she turned me on to authors and playwrights that I wouldn't have been exposed to, she was a shining star that stood out.”

Clare Schlitter Kaszuba '67, Des Plaines, IL—Jim and I are celebrating 33 years of marriage on 9/20/13.

Lexine Lajack Mainwaring '67, Harpswell, ME, “I am, and have been, a high school teacher for most of my working life. The school where I now teach is Mt. Ararat High School. It's a public school of about 850+ students. I have worked with another teacher for the last 8 years as the co-sponsor of the Civil Rights Team. The mission of the team is to promote and ensure the civil rights of the people in our school's community. We work to raise awareness about harassment and address troubles when they occur.

Last year the two sponsors of the Civil Rights Team and our eight student members received state-wide recognition with the Maine Education Association's 2013 Human and Civil Rights Award. Our team wrote a proposal for, and received funding that enabled us to take the entire student-staff body to see the movie, “Bully”. The team then trained student volunteers and designed and led a full school day of student-led workshops to address the issue of bullying in our school and community. My co-sponsor and I are very proud of these young people.

I must acknowledge that I first became aware of the importance of the work of civil rights during my time at Alvernia High School. I am deeply grateful for the educational foundation I received there. This was a great achievement and I can honestly follow the thread right back to Alvernia.

Carol Chapman Huntowski '71, Itasca, IL I've taught math at Buffalo Grove High School for the past 28 years. My ties to Alvernia have always been strong: my mother and her two sisters were also graduates of Alvernia in the early to mid 1940's. I always enjoy receiving the newsletter and hearing about the good old days!

The reason I'm writing to you now is that there happen to be four of us Alvernia graduates, all employees of Buffalo Grove High School. For several years now, we have vowed to have our picture taken and send it in to you for inclusion in the newsletter, as we thought this rather remarkable. But once each school year resumes and the madness begins, this always gets pushed to the end of our lists and forgotten until the next year and a new resolution to finally do it! So, as I will be here only one more year then retiring, I made a promise to myself that we'd finally get it done. So here (attached) is our picture, and below are our names, both old and new, and our graduation years. I hope you can find room to put us into your newsletter, and look forward to continuing to keep up with the Alvernia alumnae news in the future! Kind regards and “Hail Alvernia!”

FOUR ALUMS, TWO CARS AND A CACOPHONY OF PRINTS.....

For some women, it's all about the shoes, for others it's about the clothes and others, the hair and nails. For four Alvernia Alums it's all about the purse and the tote bag and the wallet and the luggage and, well, all things Vera Bradley!

Annually, I, my sister Mary, Class of '65, Joan Gielarowski DuBrock and Cathy Biedron Eckart, both class of '60, pile into two cars and head to Fort Wayne, Indiana for the annual Vera Bradley "Tent" Sale. Why two cars? Well, keep reading.

This event, started over 30 years ago in a real tent, is now held at the Memorial Coliseum in Fort Wayne. Over the years as its popularity grew, the Vera Bradley company needed a larger space to accommodate the thousands who come to this event.

In recent years this has gone from a 4 to a 6 day event. So here's how it works: You have the option to buy entry tickets on-line for specific shopping hours of the day. There is a limit to how many tickets are sold and it definitely makes shopping more pleasurable. You see, the first year we did this, there were no tickets. Being newbies we did not know, until we got there, that we would have to stand in line for over two hours to get in and another two hours to check out. We were lucky we had good weather that year as the majority of the wait time was outside.

When you get in, you are handed a leaf size pink Hefty bag. Items are organized by style piled on banquet tables. Volunteers and paid staff keep restocking the merchandise. (Volunteers are 'paid' in donations to whatever charity or cause they are working for and one woman told us she and a friend earned enough hours from Vera Bradley to pay for her son's soccer team uniforms.) Then, you just go nuts. Things you never thought you'd need; prints you never thought you'd be caught 'wearing' start piling into your bag to the point you are dragging it behind you like a 20 year old dog. Then, despite repeated announcements that the fire department does not want anyone sitting on the floor, women find corners to plop down and go through their bags discarding the impulse items to make room for more. You then head to checkout, throw a credit card at the check-out person, make a pledge to not look at the total and head back to the hotel, as we do, for show-and-tell over wine and pizza. Some, probably most women, wisely get in their cars and go home. We, however, go back and do it all over again the next day, hence the need for two cars.

Included in those purchases are the Vera items that are in the raffle baskets at the luncheon as well as donations for another agency for which Mary and I volunteer. It makes for great gift shopping so all of us have some Christmas shopping already done for this year.

What we found was that this was something close to a cult event. It wasn't completely about the purses, tote bags and all the great bargains. It was about being with friends and family and doing something very girly and fun. A few husbands get dragged there and the pained looks on their faces makes your heart break but you have to admire them for coming! Vera Bradley merchandise is often associated with 'more mature' women (I need to be careful here) but you'd never know that by the large amount of high school and college age women buying anything and everything mostly in pink and purple prints! Even very little girls can find something they absolutely love.

So we already have our hotel reservations made for 2014 where we will be hunting down raffle items for the 2015 luncheon (2014 is bought already!). This has now become our tradition and one we all look forward to each year!

CLASS REPS

Our Alumnae Association has a two-fold purpose: to keep the Spirit of Alvernia alive within its members and to raise funds for the Sisters who guided us in our earlier years. A Class Rep can help to accomplish these goals by:

1. Keeping an accurate class list by establishing a network within the class to contact members.
2. Calling classmates to:
  - a) Gather news items for the newsletter.
  - b) Promote enthusiasm and class representation at the various functions.

Class Reps are NOT responsible for organizing reunions.

The Class Rep Coordinator is
